Happy New Academic Year! Welcome to another busy term and a special welcome to families joining us for the first time this Autumn. A list of Forthcoming Events will come home very soon to help you plan your diaries. Class teachers are writing to parents to let you know what your children are doing this term. Please also refer to the letter that was sent from Mrs Smith that contains valuable information about what has been happening over the summer and expectations going forward. As always, if you have any worries—large or small—talk to us and we'll do our best to help!
